

Correspondence between the sexes

I am a girl who believes in Allaah and His Messenger. Is it permissible for me to correspond with a young man through what is known as the “ Pen pal corner ” ?.

Praise be to Allaah.

It is not permissible for you to correspond with a young man who is not a mahram for you through what is known as the “ Pen pal corner ” , because that is something that leads to fitnah (temptation) and to evil and corruption.

And Allaah is the Source of strength.
